and Transcendent Reality

Tamil

Anbe Sivamayam, Satyame Parasivam

Tamil Script அன்பே சிவமயம் சத்தியமே பரசிவம்

Sanskrit

Premaiva Sivamaya, Satyam eva Parashivah

Sanskrit Script

प्रेमैव शिवमय सत्यम एव परशिवः

English. It summarises the beliefs and doctrines of the Saivite Hindu religion.

Immanent means "present throughout."

Transcendent means "beyond."

God is both Manifest and Unmanifest

By repeating this affirmation, we assert that God is both manifest and unmanifest.

He is present throughout the world and He also transcends it.

He is personal Divine Love and impersonal Reality.

Repeating the Affirmation

We repeat "God Siva is Immanent Love and Transcendent Reality" when going to sleep and again while awakening.

This statement brings us close to Siva and prepares us for the day.

It's Meaning in Three other Languages

In Tamil it is 'Anbe Sivamayam, Satyame Parasivam'.

In the Sanskrit language it is 'Premaiva Sivamaya, Satyam eva Parasivah'.

In French it is 'Dieu Siva est Amour Omniprésent et Réalité Transcendante'.

A Mantra and a Sadhana

We can use it like a mantra and recite it 108 times.

We can write it down 108 or 1,008 times as a sadhana.

The Ultimate Truths of our Religion

Repeating this affirmation, we impress our mind with the ultimate truths of our religion so that these memories give us strength in times of distress, worldliness or anxiety.

God's immanent love protects and guides us

It reminds us that God's immanent love protects and guides us.

Through the day, it lifts our mind into useful thoughts and keeps us from harm's way.

Reciting this affirmation draws us into Siva consciousness.

Other religions also have affirmations of faith.

For example, Christians have the Apostle's Creed

Muslims have the Shahada.

Followers treasure their affirmations, repeating them often individually or as a group.

Gurudeva says...

God Siva is Immanent Love and Transcendent Reality" is what we have when we take the milk from the sacred cow of Saivism, separate out the cream, churn that cream to rich butter and boil that butter into a precious few drops of ghee.
